

ILLINOIS MEDICAL CANNABIS: QUALIFYING DEBILITATING MEDICAL CONDITIONS

Below are the medical conditions you must have by Illinois law. You must also have medical records from the last year that state you have this condition.

- PTSD (Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder)
- AIDS
- Agitation of Alzheimer's disease
- ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis)
- Anorexia Nervosa
- Arnold-Chiari malformation
- Syringomyelia
- Autism
- Cachexia/wasting syndrome
- Cancer
- Causalgia
- Chronic Inflammatory Demyelinating
- Polyneuropathy
- Chronic Pain
- Crohn's disease (includes Ulcerative Colitis)
- CRPS (Complex Regional Pain Syndromes Type II)
- Dystonia
- Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome
- Fibromyalgia (severe)
- Fibrous dysplasia
- Glaucoma
- Hepatitis C
- HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus)
- Hydrocephalus
- IBS (Irritable Bowel Syndrome)
- Interstitial Cystitis
- Lupus
- Migraines
- Multiple Sclerosis
- Muscular dystrophy
- Myasthenia Gravis
- Myoclonus
- Nail-patella syndrome
- Neuro-Behcet's Autoimmune Disease
- Neurofibromatosis
- Neuropathy
- Osteoarthritis
- Parkinson's disease
- Polycystic Kidney Disease
- Post-concussion syndrome
- RSD (Complex Regional Pain Syndromes Type I)
- Residual limb pain
- Rheumatoid arthritis
- Seizures, including those characteristic of epilepsy
- Sjogren's syndrome
- Spinal cord disease, including, but not limited to, arachnoiditis, Tarlov cysts, hydromyelia, syringomyelia
- Spinal cord injury
- SCA (Spinocerebellar Ataxia)
- Superior canal dehiscence syndrome
- Tourette's syndrome
- TBI (Traumatic brain injury)